

Statistical Rethinking: overmassive blackhole at high-z universe

Wednesday, 15 July 2026 17:05 (15 minutes)

We will present a statistical rethinking of the phenomenon that the AGN in the high-z universe tends to have overmassive black holes. The result will be revisited in the aspect of both more stable statistical index and more sources.

Presenter: ZHU, Chenghao

Session Classification: Session 5